

Maverick Vinales becomes sixth different MotoGP winner of season with victory at Misano

'Top Gun' Maverick Viñales had the perfect end to an amazing weekend when he took the chequered flag at the end of the 27-lap Emilia Romagna Grand Prix to become the sixth different winner in 2020.

By Maurice Montgomery

Wednesday, 23rd September 2020, 12:29 pm

Maverick Vinales won in Misano from Joan Mir and Pol Espargaro.

It was the Monster Energy Yamaha rider's eighth win in MotoGP and after starting from pole the Spaniard meant business passing Jack Miller, who made a fantastic start on the Pramac Ducati, at Turn 2 and opening a 0.7 second gap over hard-charging Pecco Bagnaia on the second Pramac Ducati.

Most Popular

-  Oran Kearney to step up Gareth Deane pursuit
-  John McGuinness reflects on best result of season after fine fourth at Oulton Park in Ducati TriOptions Cup
-  Darren Kelly vows to tackle Stephen Kenny over player eligibility issue
-  Darryl Tweed full of optimism for 2021 as Ballymoney racer